

Rebecca Enriquez

Summary

Meticulously detailed Product Engineer with 15 years' experience providing equipment specifications for skilled laborers, purchasing and designing needed tools and components, and corresponding with subcontractors, vendors and field personnel.

Education

University of Notre Dame

Aug '10-Aug '14

Engineering/Computer Software Systems

Experience

Cloud Clearwater, Product Engineer

Jul '20 - Current

- Performs and documents design-verification activities and volumetric analysis
- Drives design review initiatives for assembly to ensure smooth production processes
- Supports the design, development, testing and validation of projects for compliance with FDA quality standards

Crane & Jenkins, Product Engineer

Aug '15 - Jul '20

- Successfully led the manufacturing process through all stages, including prototype, pilot and production builds
- Provided analytical and technical support for experimental pricing structures
- Created and circulated online marketing and product-usage metrics

RiverTech, Assistant Product Engineer

Jan '13 - Aug '15

- Oversaw the implementation of customer documentation changes and internal change orders for process efficiency
- Trained and supported assemblers to implement new or redesigned product assemblies
- Used statistical tools to lead quality improvement within the sales and manufacturing teams

Certifications

- Bachelor's Degree in Engineering

Skills

- AutoCAD
- Solidworks